January 2011

With the cold, blustery, days and nights of January in full force, we at The Wild Bookstore suggest you snuggle up with a book, or enjoy sharing family puzzle or game time to pass these long winter nights.

We hope you will venture on in to enjoy these activities:

Story time with Miss Terri: every Thursday at 9:30 a.m.

Winter story and craft with Miss Lynn:

Wednesday, January 19, 10:30 – 11:00 a.m.
$3.00 per child, please call to reserve a spot. (I'm pretty sure Miss Lynn will include cookie decorating as part of this activity!)

A tea party is in the plans for February!!

If you are tired of being cooped up at home, come on in and let your kids play with the train and doll house. Look for a toy tub to be available in the near future!

Here are some fun excuses to celebrate the month of January:

- 14th National Dress Up Your Pet Day
- 17th Benjamin Franklin's Birthday and Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Day
- 18th Winnie the Pooh Day
- 20th Penguin Awareness Day

- 21st Hat Day and National Hugging Day
- 23rd Measure Your Feet Day
- 24th Compliment Day
- 25th Opposite Day
- 27th Chocolate Cake Day and National Kazoo Day
(we sell kazoos at The Wild Bookstore)
- 28th Ernie's Birthday
- 29th National Puzzle Day (we sell puzzles too)
- 31st Backwards Day

Thank you for your support of Lexi's bookmarks and bands and the community. She has sold nearly $1000.00 of her handcrafted items and donated many books to Good Samaritan Network of Hamilton!

The party room is available to host your event!
